Announcements, Clubs & Activities...

Thank you for everyone that is wearing YELLOW today in honor of National Suicide Awareness Day. If you believe that someone you know is dealing with suicidal thoughts don't be afraid to be there for them and listen. Individuals feel less lonely, depressed, and overwhelmed when they have someone who is listening to them without judgement.

Welcome back to the new school year! Attention all 10th, 11th and 12th grades and all former Link Crew leaders. We will be having an informational meeting tomorrow, Tuesday during lunch in Rm 602.

All former Link Crew Leaders and those interested in Link Crew:
We are having an informational meeting tomorrow Tuesday in room 602, Ms. Franco's class.

Have you heard Dons? The spectacular SVHS Drama Club will be having their upcoming Fall play 2018 known as "Night of the Living Dead". Auditions will take place this Thursday and Friday from 3:30-5:30pm in room 310! Get ready to get your art on Dons!

Do you want to be involved in school decisions? Are you available to attend monthly meetings with teachers, parents and the Principal to discuss school issues? Then you should run for School Site Council! Nominations are open this week Mon – Wed. Pick up a nomination form in ASB. The election will be at lunch on Friday.
