Attention Students

Attention students:

Wednesday is the last day to request any changes to your schedule. At this time counselors have seen everyone who turned in a "Request to see Counselor" form. If for some reason you turned in a form the first week of school and have not seen your counselor, please stop by the counseling office today and hand deliver your form to your counselor. As a reminder, schedule changes are only made due to schedule conflicts. If a student does not like their schedule or is requesting a teacher change, these changes are not granted. Please see your counselor or Mrs. Canal if you have any questions.

Attention students:

As a reminder our Mt. SAC Dual Enrollment Course, Administration of Justice, begins this Thursday and will meet every Tuesday and Thursday. Please make sure to be on time everyday your class meets. Good luck! Any questions please contact Mrs. Canal.
