Announcements

Dons: Do you want to bring a non-SV student to Homecoming? Guest forms are available now in ASB. This form requires many signatures, start today to allow time for processing.

Attention ALL Seniors: Mt. SAC will be hosting a FREE Cash for College event on October 9th. We HIGHLY encourage you ALL to attend this event to receive help filling out and completing your financial aid application. This event is open to all seniors who are applying to a 4 year college, community college and even seniors not sure what they are planning to do after high school. Again, this is a FREE event to get FREE money to continue your higher education after high school. Please make sure to register for this event. You can find flyers posted in the Counseling Office, in the 12th Grade Google Classroom, in your Counselor's Google Classroom and posted in your English and History Classes.

October continues Hispanic Heritage Month: The day of the dead has been celebrated for over 2,000 years.

Athletics

Congratulations to our September Athletes of the month:

Gabriel Castillo - Boys Water Polo
Jerille Delim - Girls Tennis
Irene Yan - Girls Volleyball

Congratulations to our DONS! Please come to Room 321, the Athletics Office, to receive your award.

Attention Dons: Boys and Girls Soccer try-outs are coming quick! Boys Soccer try-outs are Monday, October 18th, and Tuesday, October 19th. Girls Soccer try-outs are Tuesday, October 26th, and Thursday, October 28th. Wrestling begins October 18th.

Girls Water Polo has started as well.

If you are interested in playing a Winter sport, all clearances need to be received by Mrs. Garcia in Room 321 no later than Wednesday, October 20th, at 4pm. In order to try-out for any sport, all clearance documents must be turned in 3 days prior to try-outs. Please plan accordingly!

Attention students interested in playing Softball: try-outs will be held Tuesday, October 19th, through Thursday, October 21st, after school at the softball field.
