Announcements

Students:

If you have a schedule conflict you MUST submit a "Request to See Counselor" google form, which can be found in your Counselor's Google Classroom. Classroom codes can be found on our website and posted outside the Counseling Office. If you have an issue and do not submit a google form, your issue will not be fixed. Please submit your form ASAP.

Students must report to all the classes listed on their schedule until the counselor can call you out. The last day to request schedule changes is Friday, August 20th. If you have any questions, please stop by the Counseling Office.

Attention Students:

As a reminder there is a dress code policy all students must follow. Although some rules have changed, the majority have remained the same. Some of you have been wearing clothing that is not permitted and have not been asked to change into loaners, however this will change in the next few days.

Students wearing excessively revealing clothing will be asked to change into loaners and issued a dress code violation. This includes tops and bottoms.

Please review the dress code to determine what you should not be wearing. You can find our rules on our website or ask any administrator for clarification.

Attention Students with parking permits:

Please remember that you must park in the rows closer to the Francisquito entrance of the parking lot. The rows closer to the 3 story building are designated for staff members. Signs are not posted at the moment but will be going up soon.
