Announcements

Students: Please review and follow the newly revised Dress Code on our Website. You should not wear any clothing which is listed as NOT allowed. This means you should not wear it to school, even if you are wearing a sweater or other cover-up over the clothing item.

Attention Students: We will be hosting our Back to School Night this Thursday, September 30th. This year, Back to School Night will be held virtually from 1:30-3:30. Make sure to invite your parents to visit your teacher's websites so they can access the sessions. More information can be found on our website. Our event will begin with a live session greeting from Mr. Pratt at 1:15. We hope you can all participate!

Attention Students: If you would like to sign up for the AP Spanish or AP Chinese test, please stop by the Front Office during brunch or lunch and see Mrs. Zuniga. Deadline to sign up is Friday, October 1st.

September is Hispanic Heritage Month: Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales was a revolutionary who could knock opponents out. He made a name for himself in the boxing world as a Golden Gloves champion before spending much of his life fighting for the rights of Mexican Americans.

Yearbook

Dons: Time is running out to purchase your yearbook at our reduced price of $80. Prices will rise to $90 on October 1st. Prices will continue to increase throughout the year so NOW is the time to buy your yearbook. All yearbooks must be purchased on yearbookforever.com.

Underclassmen make-up pictures are coming up! If you haven't taken your yearbook photo, LISTEN UP! On October 6th, PSS Imaging will be on campus to take Pictures for all freshman, sophomores and juniors that did not attend registration and have their picture taken. This will be the only opportunity you have to take your photo, so make sure you are present that day and dressed to impress. If you haven't taken your picture and miss the make-up, your portrait will NOT appear in this year's book. This is NOT a senior make-up day and only underclassmen will be photographed.
