Announcements

We continue honoring Latinos this month with today's fact: Many Latinos have received the Nobel Prizes including Gabriel Garcia Marquez for his masterpiece of magic realism in his works. Rigoberta Menchu for recognition of her work for social justice and ethno-cultural reconciliation based on respect for the rights of indigenous peoples in Guatemala and Central America.

Attention ALL Sierra Vista Students: The 14th Annual Baldwin Park Unified School District College And Career Fair will be held this Saturday, September 30th, from 9:00am - 1:30pm. How will you get to the College and Career Fair this Saturday? The school district Transportation Department will provide shuttles for pick-ups and drop-offs from all middle schools and high schools. The schedule can be found on the svdons website. If you have any questions, see the Counseling Office. Hope to see you all on Saturday!

Fun Fact for Today: Colleges come in all shapes and sizes. Some are as small as 50 people and some have over 50,000 people! The size of a school is just one thing to think about when deciding what college you'd like to attend.

Attention ALL Students: U.C. Davis will be on campus Monday, October 2nd, during 2nd period. Come and hear about the great Veterinary Science Programs and Marine & Coastal Science Programs they have. They also have a great Nursing, Law, Aerospace Engineering, Business, Engineering and Pharmaceutical Chemistry Programs. Come sign up in the Counseling Office by Friday, September 29th. For questions, see Mrs. Sandra Anaya in the Counseling Office.

Students: Are you 16 years old? Are you interested in gaining Retail Sales classroom training to be eligible to work at retail stores? If so, come meet the ROP Retail Sales teacher TODAY at Lunch in the Center Quad to sign-up for this class.
